Mark A. Regier is Vice President of Stewardship Investing for Praxis Mutual Funds® and Everence® Financial, a leading provider of faith-based financial products in the United States and a ministry of Mennonite Church USA. Mark has been involved in the field of ethical and socially responsible investing at Everence for more than 20 years. He oversees the company's work in socially responsible investing and impact investing (including investment screening, proxy voting, corporate engagement and community investing). He works with products and programs throughout Everence to strengthen their creative integration of faith and finances.

As Director of Sales for Praxis Mutual Funds, Mark provides leadership for and management of the Praxis sales team. In this role, his primary focus is identifying and pursuing strategic opportunities for growth within the socially responsible, faith-based and impact investing industry.

Mark has been a member of the Board of Directors of US SIF: The Forum for Sustainable and Responsible Investment, the U.S. membership organization for professionals, companies and institutions engaged in sustainable and responsible investing. He has also served as governing board chairman for the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility and was founding chairman for the International SRI Working Group (US SIF). More recently, he served as board chairman for the Isaiah Funds (disaster recovery investments) and as an executive committee member for Partners for the Common Good (faith-based community investments). In his community, Mark has served on the boards of The Center for Healing and Hope and Menno-Hof, a Mennonite and Amish interpretation center.

In 2006, Mark received the SRI Service Award, the U.S. social investment industry's highest honor. With more than 25 years of service to the church and a background in ethics and theological studies, Mark is often a resource for national and international organizations and media on faith-based and community investing issues.

Everence helps individuals, organizations and congregations integrate finances with faith through a national team of advisors and representatives. Everence offers banking, insurance and financial services with community benefits and stewardship education. Praxis Mutual Funds is the mutual fund family of Everence Financial, a comprehensive faith-based financial services organization helping individuals, organizations and congregations. Praxis is a leading faith-based, socially responsible family of mutual funds designed to help people and groups integrate their finances with their values.
