3. Cost basis method

For shares acquired on or after Jan. 1, 2012, the Cost Basis Method you elect applies to all existing and future accounts you may establish. The Cost Basis Method you select will determine the order in which shares are redeemed and how your cost basis information is calculated and subsequently reported to you and to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Please consult your tax advisor to determine which Cost Basis Method best suits your specific situation. If you do not elect a Cost Basis Method, your account will default to average cost.

Primary method (select only one)

- Average cost – averages the purchase price of acquired shares
- First in, first out – oldest shares are redeemed first
- Last in, first out – newest shares are redeemed first
- Low cost – least expensive shares are redeemed first
- High cost – most expensive shares are redeemed first
- Loss/gain utilization – depletes shares with losses prior to shares with gains and short-term shares prior to long-term shares
- Specific lot identification – you must specify the share lots to be sold at the time of a redemption. (This method requires you elect a secondary method below, which will be used for systematic redemptions and in the event the lots you designate for a redemption are unavailable.)

Secondary method – applies only if specific lot identification was elected as the primary method (select only one)

- First in, first out
- Last in, first out
- Low cost
- High cost
- Loss/gain utilization

Note: If a secondary method is not elected, first in, first out will be used.

If you do not want to participate in householding and each shareholder wishes to receive his or her own copy of prospectuses and reports, please check the box below. If you or others in your household invest in the Funds through a broker or other financial institution, you may receive separate prospectuses and shareholder reports, regardless of whether or not you have consented to householding on your Praxis application.

I may contact the Fund to revoke my consent. I agree to notify the Fund of any errors or discrepancies within 45 days after the date of the statement confirming a transaction. Praxis Mutual Funds will not be liable for acting upon instructions believed to be genuine and in accordance with the procedures described in the prospectus or the rules of the Automated Clearing House. When AIP or Telephone Purchase transactions are presented, sufficient collected funds must be in my account to pay them. I agree that my bank's treatment and rights to respect each entry shall be the same as if it were signed by me personally. I agree that if any such entries are dishonored with good or sufficient cause, my bank shall be under no liability whatsoever. I further agree that any such authorization, unless previously terminated by my bank in writing, is to remain in effect until the Fund's transfer agent receives and has had a reasonable amount of time to act upon a written notice of revocation.
